Volketswil, 17 August 1992

Dear Mr O'Broin

Thank you for your letter and the presentation of the numbers. These correspond exactly to the decisions, and the reasons are, among others, that in 1992 we have to clear off debts and that by 1993 CAD will be introduced.

On the other hand, set against added costs are the facts that

- the IVTC in Taiwan will last three days less than in Amsterdam
- in 1995 experts can arrive three days later because of CAD

The additional costs in the budget will, at least, be set off by the lower expenses at the Competition. Bigger teams may count on important reductions in their global costs. This has been our aim.

I hope that this is helpful to you. I very much regret that at the beginning of September we will have to work without you. Nevertheless, I understand your reasons. Decisions will only be taken in 1993 so that you will have your share in the decisions.

Yours sincerely

Daniel Sommer
Secretary General
