

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

3rd September, 1965.

Dear Mr. Hill,

It was a great disappointment to me that I was unable to be present for the XIV International Apprentice Competition but from all I hear it was a great success and the standard of work very high indeed.

I hear that the work done by the British team in Glasgow was excellent and that Andrew Timmins, Richard Halsey, Keith Robley, Colin Steed, Christopher Haine, Graham Bromley, Brian Cooper, John Smith and Peter Johns achieved gold medals. I would be most grateful if you would convey to all your team members my congratulations and best wishes for their future careers.

Yours sincerely,

Philip
