111 Win Prizes In Job Skill Contest

A total of 111 competitors have been selected as prize winners in the sixth National Vocational Training Competition (NVTC) held for four days beginning Oct. 15 in Seoul.

The Korean Committee for the International Vocational Training Competition (IVTC), sponsor of the skill contest, announced yesterday that the prize winners include 36 gold, 37 silver and 38 bronze medalists.

Some 800 technicians from across the country competed with each other in 40 vocational techniques in the contest held at Yongsan Engineering High School in Seoul between Oct. 15 and 19.

Promising technicians among the medalists will be given intensive training for one year and be sent to the 21st IVTC event to be held in Portugal in autumn next year, according to the IVTC-Korean Committee.
