Dear Mr O'Broin

I am pleased to inform you that in our information brochure

- the fifth column can be printed in the Irish language
- the text sent to you is valid and thus can be translated by you
- you are free as regards the addresses
- the minimum number of these copies amounts to 1000*

I would appreciate receiving the translated text before the end of 1990.
You will be able to read the proofs.

We very much appreciate your interest and hope to contribute successfully with our ideas.

Yours sincerely

Daniel Sommer
