

XI CONCURSO INTERNACIONAL DE FORMACION PROFESIONAL

Gijón (España) 1962

Instructions for using the dormitories, Medical Services, Sports Grounds, and other offices of the Labour University in Gijón, on the occasion of the XI International Vocational Training Competition.

NOTICE TO COMPETITORS

The Workers' Mutual Benefit Organization has very kindly placed the "José Antonio Girón Labour University" -usually occupied by technical students- at your disposal during your stay in this city, for you to live in and to do the tests in some trades in its workshops.

The installations and workshops of the Industrial School for the Training of Experts and Masters of Trades has also been kindly lent by the Ministry of National Education for the tests in the other trades.

Any defects in the installations will be made up for by our good will and our wish to please you and attend to you in every way, as the distinguished guests you are in your quality of workers. You may be sure we shall do our very best to make your stay here as pleasant as possible.

The only thing we ask you to do is to abide strictly by the instructions hereunder. By doing so, you will be doing your bit to ensure the success of the Competition.

A) - In making yourselves at home in this building, treat it as you would your own home, with care and consideration.

B) - Keep your rooms and everything in them clean and tidy.

C) - Be punctual at all collective events held in the University and keep scrupulously to the published time-tables.

D) - Remember to hand in your washing from 8 to 8.30 a.m. Make a bundle of it, marked with your name and surname, nationality and trade.

E) - If you have brought with you anything you consider valuable for any reason, hand it for safe keeping to the Group Leader.

F) - If you should happen to feel unwell, do not be afraid to cause trouble or think you will be a nuisance. There is a doctor always on the premises and all you have to do is to ask the Group Leader to take you to him or call him.

G) - You may make use of the sports grounds attached to the University. To do so, apply to the Group Leader.
