Dear Sir,

Thank you for your kind letter of 31st May last and for the active support given by you to our English friends and colleagues.

I am at the moment not in a position to send you a copy of our constitution and bye-laws as they are in the process of revision. This will, however, be sent to you at the beginning of August.

Much to my regret I shall not be available for the next 4 weeks as I am in military service. This does not, however, exclude the possibility of my being in London for a few days towards the middle of July. I shall confirm this in due course.

Our committees are due for plenary sessions in Berne next September, which meetings you are cordially invited to attend. For your guidance I enclose copy of the provisional programme.

Should there be a possibility of meeting you here in July or August, I shall be very happy to make the necessary arrangements, even at short notice.

Meanwhile, I thank you for your interest and remain,

yours faithfully,
