Dear Mr. Johns,

I recently received a letter from H.R.H. Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, in which he expresses his great disappointment at not being able to be present at the XIV International Apprentice Competition.

In his letter, Prince Philip requests that I convey his congratulations to you and best wishes for your future career, to this may I add my own congratulations.

Should you wish to have a copy of his letter to me, I could no doubt prepare one for you.

Yours sincerely,

British Official Representative.
