Dear Mr Sharkie

Now that it is over, I should like to thank you once again for leading the British team to the Competition.

I think we were all impressed with the conduct of this year's team and I believe that most of the credit for this must go to you. It is not an easy job to lead a team which has been drawn from so many parts of the United Kingdom and then to instil into them in such a short period of time the awareness that they belong to a team. It was very evident, however, that you had largely succeeded in this and I and my Committee are most grateful to you.

I hope that you have found the experience rewarding and not without interest.

Sincerely
David Woodbine Parish
