WorldSkills London 2011 will be held in October at ExCeL exhibition and conference centre in London's Docklands.

Involving 1,200 competitors from 50 nations competing in 45 skills, WorldSkills London 2011 will be the most exciting and inspiring skills competition that the world has ever seen.

Reaching up to 250,000 people, the Event will provide opportunities for visitors to 'have a go' at the skills of their choice, with experts on hand to offer advice on future career options and opportunities.

Have a look at our new website, to find out more.
