POUR INFORMATION

Dear Mr. Eda,

Your report to the standing commission in Taipei on the Osaka competition preparations has proved that the Japanese organising committee is doing a wonderful job and leaves nothing to chance.

I would like to express my appreciation, also on behalf of president Albert, for your efforts and support.

As far as the simultaneous translation problem is concerned, I will also try and find a solution myself so that at the coming meeting in September, we have at least two alternatives to choose from.

I am at your entire disposal for any questions or problems you may have and in the meantime, I remain, with kind regards,

yours truly,

Daniel Sommer
secretary-general
