Dear Mr Sharkie

International Apprentice Competition

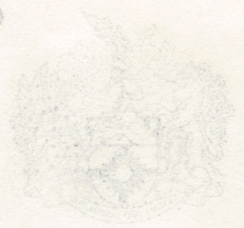

I should like to express my own most sincere thanks, together with those of the United Kingdom Committee, for the great assistance you gave during the past fortnight in Madrid. I feel that the physical and mental welfare of the British team is of the greatest importance during the competitions and the general good health which the British team enjoyed in Madrid, together with their cheerfulness despite adverse conditions, was entirely due to your care.

I very much hope that you will feel able to maintain your connection with the Competition next year.

*Sincerely
David Woodbine Parish*

International Agriculture Competition

I should like to express my own most sincere thanks, together with those of the United Kingdom Committee, for the great assistance you have given during the past fortnight in which I feel that the physical and mental welfare of the British team is of the greatest importance during the competition and the mental and health which the British team enjoyed in Berlin, Germany, was entirely due to your care. I very much hope that you will feel able to maintain your connection with the competition next year.
