

Olympic glory beckons for skilful college duo

TWO students from Brunel Technical College, Ashley Down, will represent Great Britain at the International Skill Olympics, in Birmingham, next month.

Hairdressing student Nicola Heaven, aged 19, from Wotton-under-Edge, is representing Britain for the second time. She took part in last year's event, held in Germany.

Stephen Porter, aged 20, from Whitchurch, will be Britain's entry in the computerised numerical control engineering section. Stephen is an apprentice machinist at British Aerospace.

Four hundred competitors from 21 countries will take part in the event, which will be held at the NEC from August 28-31 August.
