Dear Jim

I've been sent for my edification a copy of your presentation on occupational health and safety at work in Montreal.

I've learned a great deal from it! And I have no doubt the audience did if they were as alert as they should have been. I'm sure it was a bit of a trial to prepare your contribution but it will be found genuinely valuable for anyone who wants to understand the basic approach in the UK. Bravo!

It was good to see you the other day at the V&A. Quite good, I thought.

Best wishes

John
